

THE FRUITS OF LABOUR:

Celebrating 100 Years of Irrigation Research and the CSIRO

The Fruits of Labour: Celebrating 100 Years of Irrigation Research and the CSIRO

Griffith Regional Art Gallery is pleased to announce the theme of its 2024 community art exhibition: "The Fruits of Labour: Celebrating 100 Years of Irrigation Research and the CSIRO". The exhibition will run from 21 September to 3 November 2024, offering locals an opportunity to engage with local heritage and creativity.

The Gallery invites Artists in our district, the Western Riverina* to contribute artworks which aims to honour the legacy of irrigation research and the CSIRO (Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation) in Griffith and the district over the past century. Or engage with the theme 'fruits of labour.'

APPLICATION FORM. PLEASE READ ALL DETAILS CAREFULLY.

HOW TO ENTER:

- Drop off your completed entry form and artwork/s to Griffith Regional Art Gallery by 5pm Friday 13 September 2024.
- Entry fee of $5 per artwork must be paid at the time of delivery.
- All work must be presented ready to be hung.

CHECK LIST

- ☐ Canvases and framed works are ready to hang with D-rings on the back.
- ☐ I have carefully read and completed all components of the entry form, including the terms and conditions.
- ☐ I am aware of the time and date to deliver my artwork and $5 entry fee (per entry).
- ☐ I have put the artist/s name/s and title of the artwork on the back or underside of the artwork.

DATES TO REMEMBER

- Friday 13 September 2024
Artworks and completed entry forms to be delivered to Griffith Regional Art Gallery
- Friday 27 September 2024 at 6pm
Opening Celebration
- Sunday 3 November 2024
Exhibition closes
- Friday 6 December 2024
All artworks must be collected